American Delphinium Society

(And Learn How The Country's EXPERTS Grow Them)

If you want a garden full of rich purple, blue, lavender, pure white and color combinations of blue, lavender and purple Delphiniums, then you will want to join the American Delphinium Society and learn how to grow Delphiniums the right way. The articles printed in the Society's YEAR BOOK and NEWS BULLETINS, written by amateur growers as well as by the world's most renowned hybridizers, will show you how to make your garden the envy of your neighbors. If you join now, you will receive the latest Year Book. This is the finest and most complete Year Book we have ever sent out with a wealth of Delphinium-growing secrets.

MEMBERSHIP ENTITLES YOU TO . . .

THE DELPHINIUM YEAR BOOK. A beautifully printed, spiral bound book chock-full of informative and valuable articles written by amateur and expert alike, describing their personal problems and experiences with Delphiniums and offering tested methods on how to raise the largest and most beautiful Delphiniums in your neighborhood.

Four issues of the quarterly DELPHINIUM NEWS are mailed each year. They are a swap-fest of ideas where questions and problems are solved for the members.

An opportunity to attend and participate in the Annual Delphinium Conventions and Exhibits and to display your choice Delphiniums in the Delphinium Shows which are held in almost every State in the Union. Privilege of using Delphinium Kodachrome Slide Lecture at no further charge.

All for only $3 a year membership fees. No other society offers so much for so little.

THE YEAR BOOK AND FOUR EDITIONS OF THE DELPHINIUM NEWS ARE FILLED WITH SUCH ARTICLES AS THESE BY EMINENT DELPHINIUM AUTHORITIES

- How To Prepare Soil For Seeds
- How To Plant The Seeds
- How To Transplant Seedlings
- How To Prepare Your Garden Soil
- How To Stake Delphiniums
- How To Grow Large Healthy Plants
- How To Cross-Pollenize
- How To Combat Diseases

The Delphinium Society is a non-profiting co-operative organization. Through its Year Book it disseminates information and data concerning the development, breeding and cultivation of the modern Delphinium with the object of coordinating, testing and checking the progress made.

It endeavors to further a greater appreciation of the beauty and garden value of the modern Delphinium.

It stimulates and promotes the growing of Delphiniums everywhere.

It hopes soon to expand its research program dealing with problems pertinent to the growing of Delphiniums.

It has available to members, groups and garden clubs for their local use, colored kodachrome slides from its visual education department for illustrated lectures. Subject: "How to Grow Prize Winning Delphiniums." No charge except return postage to A.D.S. members. $3.00 rental charge to non-members.

It encourages the lovers of the stately Delphinium to meet and become acquainted with other ardent Delphinarians in their own community and elsewhere.

It publishes a complete list of all its members in each annual issue.

The beautifully illustrated Year Book and 4 quarterly issues of the Delphinium News are sent free to all members.

The Society has no stock or seed for sale and it does not recommend any seed as being the best.
